WORK EXPERIENCE

01/03/2021 - 28/06/2021 - IRBID, Jordan

Industrial engineering and work study

Classic Fashion Apparel Industry

The industrial engineer is a very important part of any factory, as he is considered the person who finds solutions to the problems facing the factory. I was doing a study and research for the movements of workers, finding production quantities for each person, arranging work in the form of production lines, controlling production and making sure that the process runs smoothly. Development of workers And make them increase production by making a study for each person. Make all parallel production lines the same number of workers to produce all lines the same quantity

Inventory management

Teeba for Developed Food Processing

Inventory management is part of the supply chain management cycle, and this part contains many factors that affect the company's installation, so we focus mainly on reducing stores. After all, it is considered a loss in the company because it is fixed money and we must reduce it If my job role is to monitor products and production dates and provide trucks with the appropriate goods and quantities that the market needs to deliver the goods to our most important element, which is the customer. After that, when the trucks return, we do an inventory of the goods and make sure of the conformity on the electronic system for him to go to the accountant and make sure that all the trucks are received and verify the number before closing the store.

Safety engineer

AL-WASEET AND AL-RABADI COMPANY

Safety is an important and deep part of any company, especially in the installation of elevators, if the dangers are too many, so it was necessary to ensure the commitment of the workers to observe the conditions of occupational safety and to ensure the standards and preventive measures every day in terms of clothing, helmet, etc. In addition to making sure of the safety standards in the elevator for the people who use it to provide them with safety and security
