

Ahmad Alanazi

Saudia Arabia |0531899670 |ndtahmad@gmail.com | LinkedIn (www.linkedin.com/in/ahmad-alanazi-21a24a1a4)

EDUCATION

University of hafr al-baten

Associate degree in non-destructive evaluation technology

EXPERIENCE

Durat Al-jubail company|inspector | Saudia Arabia Jubail

07/2021-Present

- Peruse work scope for each job to ensure familiarity with the work to be performed
- Assist other technicians
- Perform equipment setup and calibration to comply with industry and company standards
- Assist Level II in conducting tests in other NDT methods
- Perform Non-destructive examinations/tests to assess quality condition and/or identify defects
- Work in harsh environments
- Prepare reports outlining findings and conclusions
- Set up equipment to perform tests, and conducts tests on parts, following procedures established for specified tests performed
- Manufacturing/Operational Technical Support

Nexter systems (contract) | Mechanical Technician | Saudia Arabia, Riyadh

02/2020– 11/2020

- I worked there as a contract worker In Nexter Workshop based in Riyadh, doing my job as ordered starting from assembling equipment's as per procedure to maintaing it, inspecting it and making sure it's finished on schedule
 - Key Accomplishments:
Cutting the cost by doing 3-5 tasks in addition to the given work like threading the bolts, operating the forklift & crane, handling the equipment's and doing the inspection

SKILLS:

Strong attention to detail

- Excellent analytical skills with the ability to make sound suggestions or recommendations
- Attention to detail and an ability to produce error-free products and accurately complete paperwork
- Good organizational skills and ability to work with minimal direction
- Able to follow directions and procedures
- Experience with multiple brands of flaw detectors strongly desired
- Excellent verbal, written and interpersonal communication skills
- Certification in NDT methods