

Biomedical engineering graduate with honorary degree, seeking an entry-level position in the field. Trained on maintenances, administration, and medical devices regulatory. And eager to experience more on biomedical engineer roles.

Professional Training

1 MONTH

Biomedical Engineering Internship / Qatif Central Hospital

- Trained in the Facility of Management and Safety department (FMS).
- Engaged on the periodic preventive maintenance (PPM) and repairing some devices.
- Explored the hospital department and clinics.

2 MONTHS

Summer Training Program / King Fahad Hospital of University

- Engaged on the periodic preventive maintenance (PPM).
- Explored the hospital department and clinics.
- Trained on performing safety Test.

Experience

15 December 2020 – 30 JULY 2021

Regulatory affairs associate/ Bio-Standards company in Riyadh

- Worked on Medical Device Marketing Authorization (MDMA) registration and Low Risk Devices registration (MDNR) in Saudi food and drug authority (SFDA) system.

Skills

- General knowledge of common medical devices.
- Knowledge of main hospital departments.
- Ability to understand operation and service manuals.
- Familiarity with some essential engineering tools.
- Critical thinking and analytical skills.
- Knowledge of basic anatomy and physiology.
- Professional documenting and reporting.
- Time management.
- Willingness to learn.
- Problem solving.
- Creative thinking.
- Excellent computer skills.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office
- Adaptability and flexibility.
- Professional E-mails writing.
- Teamwork.

Education

MAY 2019

The degree of Bachelor of Science in Biomedical Engineering (Second Honorary Degree)
Imam Abdulrahman Bin Faisal University

References

Engr. Noor Alabkari

Biomedical Engineer

Qatif Central Hospital

Contact: noor.abkari@gmail.com

Volunteering

- Participated in Activating the Quality Day in Qatif central hospital. (13 February 2020)
 - Participated in Activating the Diabetes Day by Ras Tanura central hospital. (22 November 2019)
 - Member of the Engineering club in the designing team for two year.
-

Workshops

- Basic knowledge workshop of Puritan Bennett 980 Ventilator held in king Fahd hospital of university. (8 August 2018)
-

Languages

- ARABIC: Native
- ENGLISH: Excellent