

Mohammed Alsharif

Interior Architect

+966540081284

mohammedalsharifr3d@gmail.com

Profile

I am an interior architecture designer, as well as, a 3D artist. My core areas of expertise include conceptual design, CAD documentation, and space planning. As a 3D artist, I am concerned with design analysis and architectural visualization. Besides, I have passion in design with my interests being instillation, exhibition, retail, and experimental design.

Education

Woodbury University - Burbank, CA
2015 - 2021
Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interior Architecture

INTO George Mason University - Fairfax, VA
2015
ESL

Kaplan Int. English - Washington D.C.
2013 - 2015
ESL

Experience

Receptionist - Nan Rae Gallery
2017 - 2020
Woodbury University - Burbank, CA

Receptionist - WUHO
Spring 2018
Woodbury School of Architecture - Hollywood, CA

Librarian - Lighting and Material Lab
Fall 2018
Interior Architecture Program - Burbank, CA

Skills

Space planning
Screen printing
Lasercutting
CNC routing
Wood shopping
Photography

Drafting
Figure Drawing
Spacial drawing
Rendering
Vacuum forming
3D printing

Softwares

Autocad
Keyshot
Vray
Maxwell
Photoshop
Illustrator
Indesign
Rhino
Revit

Interests

Space planning
Screen printing
Fashion History
Fashion marketing
Architectural History
Art History
Color theory
Filming

Languauge

Arabic (Native)
English (Proficiency)

Reference

Woodbury University
info@woodbury.edu
+1 (818) 252 - 5221