Dear Hiring Manager,

Applying for the position of Project Manager.

I am an M.Sc(Ag) in Horticulture Engineering from Bangladesh Agricultural University. Served more than 20 years under the Ministry of Agriculture, Bangladesh Government with full satisfaction of the authority. I was engaged always with multi disciplinary components in multi locations with, Horticultural fruits, vegetables and flowers, gardening, landscaping, colored plantations, training-pruning etc best practices for architectural design, teaching/training as well as Horticulture value chain activities holding strategic senior management positions.

Being a Horticultural Expert conducted observation with Organic and Hybrid Tomato for nutritional value assessment along with vicinity beautification, lawn, turf etc. management with proper training to the mangers, field men, plot owners etc on the latest field suited practices e,g land selection & preparation, fertilizer & manure application, planting & caring, IPM, garden management, harvesting, processing, drying, storing etc, soil improvement & conservation practices for crop production and profit maximization.

Perhaps, it is not inconsistent to note that In my previous station achieved three times more coconut quality production in comparison to the previous year with best practices of garden suited fertilizer/manure application, mulching with water hyacinth, IPM practices along with field suited management technology. I do perform my duties even in weekends. Being a successful Horticulturist, I do believe that your honor would consider my prayer; if possible in other position.

Yours' faithfully,

= (Mohammed Haque)=
