Edelito Cueto

Successful accountant gives back, sets up scholarship fund for the youth of Pitogo, Quezon

Yul Espartero

AN INSPIRING son of Quezon province, Edelito Cueto has learned to give back while working abroad. Lito, as he is affectionately known, is a man of vision and integrity.

A fisherman's son

Life, then, was difficult. He recalls, "I was 16 years old when I got the first paying job. I stopped my studies to give way to my four siblings during our school days. We were financially unstable, so our education was affected. But I helped my parents in our day-to-day living. After a year, I decided to enter the university and started to take my accountancy degree.

He was born in Pitogo, Quezon to spouses Eddie and Letecia Cueto. His father worked as a fisherman. He graduated from Pitogo Elementary School in 1990 and from Western Tayabas High School in 1994. He was a recipient of Leadership Award when he obtained his degree in Bachelor of Science in Accountancy at Polytechnic University of the Philippines. In 2006, he married Maricel L. Cueto. They have one daughter, Elisha Mae, 10 years old.

Journey

He has been abroad for a decade. In February 2008, he joined a catering company, Algosaibi Services Co. Ltd. He said, "For others, I may have climbed the ladder of success. But for me, I am not yet in the middle of the road. I started the race but still I can not consider that I've finally arrived. I strongly believe that we can redefine ourselves. Begin with your positive thought, and then it will become your actions. It becomes your character and habits, and then soon, it will be your beautiful destination."

Reaching out

He's the Founding President of Anak Pitogo that originated in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Through his abiding leadership, it was able to attract members from across the globe. He added, "They are helping us support financially the APKKK Scholars in our native land. Giving scholarship grants to the poor but clever students and planting mangroves (bakhawan), are among the few of exhilarating and yet very fulfilling projects under our organization.

He believes that "a simple act of kindness and care creates an endless riddle" – a message which according to him is very meaningful. He recalls, "during my childhood, I decided to stop my schooling due to our financial status. But the universe conspired. There was one person who came to the rescue. He is also a son of Pitogo. If my memory serves me right, he told me, "You don't have to help me back or return the favour that I gave you. I would be happy, instead, if I see you helping your family in the future. For me, that's more than enough."

Now, his group has almost 100 scholars enjoying the privileges offered by Anak Pitogo KKK.

He further said, "I am also an active member/officer here in the Kingdom of different organizations such as Toastmasters International and other groups amongst the Filipino community.

We helped OFWs who had some problems and troubles with their employers. Giving is sharing so we extend our assistance by giving some financial support, foods and clothes to our distressed OFWs. As an organizer/leader, we are conducting some sports activities and events. We did also photography sessions and symposium, seminars and photo shoots in Saudi Arabia."

Dear Toastmaster Cueto,

Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM) recognition is the greatest honor that can be earned by a member of Toastmasters International. The DTM award is given only to those who have demonstrated outstanding leadership and communication skills and who have used these skills to help others in their self-development efforts.

Attaining this award was not an easy task. You have completed both the leadership and communication tracks, earning many awards to reach DTM status. These accomplishments have given you a greater perspective of the value of being a good communicator and an effective leader.

You have assisted your club, district, and community. More than four million people have benefited from our programs since the organization's establishment in 1924. Your accomplishments and continuing contributions are a significant factor in this success.

I am delighted to recognize you as a Distinguished Toastmaster. Your outstanding achievement will serve as an inspiration to all Toastmasters. Enclosed is an exquisite plaque in honor of your achievement.

Sincerely,

Daniel Rex
Chief Executive Officer
