To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Open Reference Letter for Mr C. Parameshwaran

I am writing an unreserved letter of recommendation for Mr. Parameshwaran as his previous employer. Mr. Parameshwaran started studying at Tea Leaf Vision in October 2009 in Maskeliya on our Basic English Programme, he then completed his Main Diploma (2010), followed by the Advanced Diploma: Internship Programme (2011). In December 2011 he was offered the position of Teacher of IT in the English Medium and Community English Programme Coordinator. He left us in March 2012 due to family circumstances, which have now, I understand, been resolved.

Tea Leaf Vision is an English Medium Centre for Professional Development that specialises in: English Grammar; Professional Speech; Business; I.T; and Success and Ethics (based on Stephen Covey's "Seven Habits of Highly Effective People"). The centre works with 18 – 24 year olds, mainly from underprivileged backgrounds, and helps them to develop into confident, ethical and successful community members.

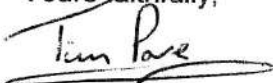

Mr. Parameshwaran taught I.T., at the school in the English Medium with great success. He is kind, patient, explains things clearly and manages his classroom well. He is always professional and ensures that he always fulfils his responsibilities to the school, his colleagues and to his friends to a very high standard. During the course of the two and a half years he has shown himself to be a fast learner, proactive and committed to producing quality work himself and ensuring the same from his class.

Mr. Parameshwaran was Programme Coordinator for our Community English Programme where we conduct free English classes at local government schools by training our Main Diploma students to teach children from their communities. He met with many Principals regarding this and his planning was excellent. He is also a talented artist creating many lovely pieces and signs for the school.

We are very sad to see him leave us and I would recommend him to any employer as a very good candidate who has a very high level of spoken and written English. I wish him the best.

Should you require any further information, please feel free to contact me on the above number or at timpare74@yahoo.com to talk in more depth about this excellent candidate.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. T.M. Pare
