

File No: C20170200

Overseas Qualification Assessment Advice

Name: Ammar Saeed Mohammed Moohialdin
Qualification: Master of Science in Construction Engineering and Management
Institution: King Fahd University of Petroleum and Minerals
Country: Saudi Arabia
Date of Graduation: 24 January 2017
Program Description:

This program required 2 or more years of full-time study

Assessment Advice:

On the basis of assessment guidelines published by the Australian Government Department of Education and Training in the Country Education Profile for Saudi Arabia, the Master of Science in Construction Engineering and Management issued by King Fahd University of Petroleum and Minerals is assessed as comparable to the educational level of an:

Australian (AQF) Master Degree

Chris Buchanski
Principal Program Officer
Training and Skills Pathways
Department of Education and Training

17 October 2017

This assessment is issued on the basis of certified documents presented to this office and is a guide to the comparability of the educational level of the overseas qualification in Australian terms. Acceptability for employment, membership of a professional body, occupational registration or further study purposes is a matter for the respective authorities in Australia to determine. This assessment does not constitute an endorsement or assurance of the authenticity of the documents presented.